The Islamic religion is based on the ‘submission’ to the will of Allah.

Allah is the Arabic word for “God”

Muslim means “one who submits to the will of Allah”

The Qur’an, Sunnah and Hadith provide the sources of Islamic teachings, ethos, and framework for the Shari’a, Islam’s body of law
Characteristics of Islam (2 of 3)

- The Islamic faith can be summed up in the profession of faith: “There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is his Messenger.”
- Islam is one of the three great monotheistic religions along with Christianity and Judaism---a (single) view of God
- Islam is not just a religion, it is a way of life for Muslims
Characteristics of Islam
(3 of 3)

- Islam is a system of rules to be followed; it preserves order in society.

- The sacred is not separated from the secular.

- There are no ordained clergy; nor separate religious organization or ‘church’.
The Prophet Muhammad
(1 of 2)

- Islam teaches Allah revealed Himself to a number of prophets: Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus
- Islam teaches Muhammad was given God’s final and complete revelation
- The Prophet was born in Mecca about AD 570
Islam teaches Muhammad received the spoken word of Allah from the angel Gabriel containing the foundation of the faith while in Mecca in the 7th century AD.

Islam teaches the Prophet began receiving the Qur'an in the month of Ramadan in AD 610.

The process of revelation continued until his death in AD 632.

Various sects developed after his death.

Religious Tolerance

- Christians and other religious minorities enjoy an unusual amount of religious freedom.
